Cocoanut Ice.

Put a pound and a half of loaf sugar into a saucepan with a quarter of a pint of water, and a pinch of cream of tartar. Melt and boil in the usual way, mixing in half a pound of cocoanut. Pour into a mold and put in a cool place to set. Make some more, coloring it pink and place it on the white ice. When it is firm cut into bars. If it does not set it is because it has not been boiled enough. If hard or sugary it has been overboiled.

THE FEMINE OBSERVER.

Transatlantic travel has begun. Strawberry shortcake is in great favor. When we feel unusually sentimental or religious we may be bilious.

tram, was presumably getting well. A sudden change came and he died at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

J. H. Smith was taken ill on Thursday with what was supposed to be malarial fever. Meningitis developed and he died Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the same lumber camp.

Hennington Hutchins of this city was taken ill on Saturday with the same disease and he is in a very critical condition.

ORANGE LOCALS.

Wholesale Cultivation of Rice is Undertaken.

Orange, Texas, April 24.—Mr. A. Lang of the Des Moines Rice company, who are operating extensively at Terry, in this county, was in Orange today for the purpose of purchasing cypress lumber with which to construct a flume 200 yards long for their pumping station. He states that within two weeks their irrigation canal will be completed to a distance of three and a half miles, 100 feet wide and four to nine feet deep, and has a capacity of 25,000 gallons a minute. Mr. Lang states that his company will put in 1600 acres of rice this year and 3500 next year. They also contemplate building a rice mill this fall, either at Terry or Orange, and the chances are that it will be erected at Orange. The engine and boiler for their pumping station has just been installed. Great trouble was experienced in getting the engine from the railroad station at Terry to the site of the plant, the trucks on which the machinery was loaded bogging down. This inconvenience and delay could have been avoided by shipping the machinery and conveying it to its destination on the bank of Cow bayou by boat.

D. A. Patis, Jr., a well known farmer and cattle man of Orange county, has just returned from Austin county, where he delivered a shipment of 221 head of cattle, to be fed for the market.

Wallisville Locals.

Wallisville, Texas, April 24.—The schooner Adele will take as passengers to Galveston today Dr. and Mrs. Shearer, who will attend the medical convention in San Antonio this week.

Mr. Morseman, adjuster for W. L. Moody & Co. of Galveston.

Mrs. C. C. Davis and Miss Bulah Underwood, the latter, after a pleasant visit, is returning to Houston.

Mrs. Sarah Edgar and daughter and grandchildren are returning to their home in Galveston.

The tug Protection, with barge loaded with brick, passed up the river destined for the pumping station of the Raywood Rice company.

The Horatio towed out two barges loaded, one with 550 ash logs for export and the other with 50,000 feet of sawed lumber for Houston.

Jasper Jottings.

Jasper, Texas, April 23.—Captain John W. Davis, deputy for the Woodmen, is here organizing a camp of that order.

Quite a lot of improving is going on in town. Mrs. Patten, the postmistress, has added a large addition to her residence.

Judge Blake and Captain Kelle are having wire picket fences put around their residences, and the best of it is, it is manufactured here.

A cigar factory is soon to be established here, and the fine tobacco raised here will be made into cigars.

Dr. T. E. Stone has just returned from Beaumont.

Dr. Ratcliff, dentist, has returned after a protracted trip to the Tram towns.

Treasure Seekers Nearing Their Goal.

Hillsboro, Texas, April 24.—Reports from Abbott say the treasure seekers have excavated the first room of the cave and are at the entrance to the second chamber, over a hundred feet from the starting point. The chamber is twelve feet deep, twelve feet wide and sixteen feet long. It is expected that the $750,000 will be found in the second chamber. No visitors are allowed. A guard stands at the mouth of the cave, armed with a Winchester, and will not allow anyone nearer than a hundred feet of the cave.

BUDGET FROM BEAUMONT

Hundred Saw Mills in the Territory Have Shut Down.

RUMORS OF TWO CASES OF SMALLPOX.

St. Mark's Episcopal Church Elected Vestrymen—Evangelist Van Pelt's Services.

Beaumont, Texas, April 24.—Mr. J. N. Glibert, manager of the Beaumont Lumber company, has been notified by Western and Northwestern representatives of his company that 122 saw mills have been closed down on account of putting into effect timber laws applying to the Indian Territory as construed by the interior department and attorney general at Washington. The laws as construed doubtless work a hardship on the Indian Territory manufacturers, but it will result in a largely increased demand for the products of Texas and Louisiana mills. The territory mills were largely manufacturers of yellow pine lumber, and as timber came cheap they were regarded as demoralizers. Elimination of the product as well as the influence of these mills will doubtless stiffen and probably increase prices for certain classes and specifications of lumber.

REV. VAN PELT'S REVIVAL.

Rev. Van Pelt, Christian church evangelist, preached to another large congregation at the auditorium tonight, his subject being "Conversion of Saul of Tarsus."

Tomorrow night the Constellation orchestra will render several selections as preliminary to the sermon and at the close of the service the evangelist will organize a Christian church congregation. The revival will continue through next Sunday, subjects of sermons being as follows:

Tuesday night—"Objections to and Misrepresentations of the Christian Church—What We Believe and Why."

Wednesday night—"What is Man? Where Does He Go When He Dies?" illustrated by a chart showing each state, church, paradise, etc.

Thursday night—"The King's Highway," chart lecture showing babyhood, manhood, church, paradise and hell.

Friday night—"Christ Our High Priest."

CHURCH ELECTIONS.

The congregation of St. Mark's Episcopal church met after the services yesterday and elected the following vestrymen to serve the ensuing year: Messrs. Ike Bingham, A. N. Weston, W. S. Davidson, T. A. Lamb, L. D. Polk, John R. Goodhue, W. P. H. McFaddin, R. D. Blair, J. N. Price, J. L. Lockhart, R. D. Gray and R. R. Henry. Rector Becker named Mr. Bingham senior warden and Mr. Davidson junior warden. A. N. Weston, junior warden. W. P. H. McFaddin alternates to the Episcopal council which convenes in Waco on May 10.

SMALLPOX RUMORS.

A report reached the city today that a girl, recently an inmate of the Sisters' hospital, was sick with smallpox at a point known as Blanchette's cove, about nine miles southwest of the city. County Physician Price left today to see the patient and the character of the illness can not be learned until he returns.

It is also reported that there is a case of smallpox at Baytown, the location of a summer resort on the Gulf and Interstate, forty miles from this city. The Rollover case is in the nature of a rumor, while the Blanchette cove case is reported as suspiciously.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The county commissioners met in special session today and approved the final report of County Tax Collector Langham. In addition to this the court ordered that the proposed Port Arthur-Sabine road be changed from the west to the east side of the Sabine River, Texas, and approved the county judge's fee bill, reclassified a section of school land and loaned the county road grading machine to the Port Arthur company.

WILL BREAKFAST AT BEAUMONT.

Beginning next Sunday, passengers on the eastbound Southern Pacific train, which arrives in this city at 7:55 a. m., will take breakfast at the Crosby house. Beaumont was the breakfast station for this train for many years, but was discontinued by the railroad. The arrangement will be a convenience to the traveling public.

TO ELECT TEACHERS.

The city school board held its regular monthly meeting this afternoon and after transacting routine business passed a resolution delegating the duty of electing teachers on May 29 for the 1899-1900 school term. There are already several applications for positions in the hands of the secretary.

DEATH OF AN INFANT.

George Cynthia, aged 1 year, 9 months and 28 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Peck, died yesterday morning and the remains of the little one were interred in Magnolia cemetery, the funeral taking place from the residence of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Ogden, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

CHURCH PICNICS.

Sunday schools of the Baptist and Methodist churches will have a union picnic on either Friday or Saturday of next week.

LOCAL NOTES.

There is a gentleman in the city looking for a location for a wholesale grocery house. He expresses himself as well pleased with Beaumont.

Mrs. Park, the sweet singer with Evangelist Van Pelt, has consented to drill the children for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union lecture next Sunday afternoon.

Beaumont Tent No. 62, K. O. T. M., will hold their regular meeting tomorrow night. There will be seven initiations and every knight is urged to be present.

John H. Kirby, general manager of the Gulf, Beaumont and Kansas City railroad, accompanied by his wife and daughter, came over from Houston this morning and went up to Chester, Tyler county.

BRENNHAM BRIEFS.

Dr. Burleson Will Attend the Exercises at Washington.

Brenham, Texas, April 24.—In arranging for the exercises incident to the unveiling of the monument which is to mark the spot at the old town of Washington, where the Texas independence declaration was signed, the committee in charge of the programme invited as chaplain of the occasion one of the oldest ministers in Texas, one who has long been at the head of one of the best educational institutions of the State, one whose life was partly spent in this country, and one whose marriage in this country occurred many, many years ago—Rev. Rufus C. Burleson of Waco, formerly president of the Baylor university. In reply to the invitation the following letter has been received:

Waco, Texas, April 22.—I am happy to find on my return from the Texas veterans' meeting at Temple your letter of April 18, informing me that I have been selected as chaplain for the unveiling of the monument marking the spot where Texas independence was signed. I am happy to accept the invitation and will be at the old town of Washington on the Fourth of July, and will do all in my power to make that a monument day true to the spirit and the great enterprise of erecting suitable monuments to perpetuate the heroic deeds of our fathers. Yours affectionately, Rufus C. Burleson.

At 6:40 o'clock this morning William Morgan, colored, was killed by a south-bound freight train on the Santa Fe, and a companion, Joe Howell, narrowly escaped the same kind of death. Morgan was sleeping between the rails and was instantly killed, his body being mangled.

Proceedings of the Woman's Home Mission Society.

Dallas, Texas, April 24.—The Methodist Woman's Home Mission society continued its session today. The report of the general secretary, Mrs. Bishop R. K. Hargrove of Nashville, was read and approved.

This afternoon a reception was tendered all the delegates.

Tonight Rev. R. Lamar of Marshall, Texas, lectured on "Mission Work Among the Chinese."

Bishop W. A. Candler left for Louisville, Ky., today to attend the meeting of the Methodist Foreign Mission society. Bishop Candler has recently returned from a trip to the city of Rome, Italy, in the interest of the Roman Catholic church in England. His lecture "Mission Work in Cuba," which he delivered before leaving Dallas, is largely devoted to a description of what he saw and heard among the Cuban Catholics.

Several thousand dollars have been raised by the society for the support of mission schools. The meeting will hardly get through tomorrow, as was intended.

Mulkey Meeting Closed.

Goldthwaite, Texas, April 24.—Mr. Mulkey closed his meeting at the court house last night. He had the largest congregation that ever assembled in the town. About thirty-five have applied for membership to the different churches, principally the Methodist and Baptist.

GRAND JURY CHARGED

To Look into Charges Against Dallas City Officials.

TO SUMMON ALL OFFICERS BEFORE IT.

Judge Clint Also Directed Attention to the "Pistol Toters" and Men Who Tell Truads.

Dallas, Texas, April 24.—Judge Charles F. Clint of the criminal district court of Dallas today delivered a special charge to the grand jury of unusual force and emphasis. The charge, a quite lengthy and exhaustive one, has set the town to talking.

Under the subject of carrying deadly weapons, and in the light of recent tragedies and court trials, he said: "Don't stop at indulging a few small devils who carry pistols, one indictment usually breaks them up in business, but there are wealthy men, prominent men, who make a practice of carrying pistols and of openly boasting of 'Old Betsy's' sure aim—get these men, teach them to understand they are no better than others and make all respect the law. Men who deliberately violate the law and boast of it as some men do in this regard are no better than outlaws."

Recent "leaks" of grand jury proceedings were touched upon as follows: "It has been notoriously of public comment that grand jury proceedings have heretofore been 'leaked out.' I want you to emphasize the oath of secrecy to every witness and to make efforts to apprehend every man who violates that oath. When you find one who is guilty of divulging anything, that came to his knowledge while before the grand jury, let me know it and we'll see if he can't be made to respect the next grand jury he goes before."

The part of Judge Clint's charge which created the most acute sensation was the following: "It becomes my duty, gentlemen, to direct your special attention to the current reports of malfeasance in office by officials of the city of Dallas. I want you to summon before you the mayor, city auditor, city secretary, chief of police, his captain, each alderman and each other persons as may be necessary for you to examine in arriving at the truth or falsity of these current reports."

"Public servants frequently have enemies who try to drag them down and tarnish their reputations. Remember also, that they have friends who try to hide the truth. For this reason an affair of this kind must be investigated with caution. The city council passed a resolution demanding an investigation of the current charges of malfeasance against its members. Have all the officers I have mentioned before you. It is not the duty of a special committee, as provided in the city charter, to investigate charges of malfeasance, but it is particularly the duty of the grand jury. Make these charges against city officials a special matter. I direct your consideration to them, because the law makes it my duty to do so."

After hearing the court's charge the grand jurors proceeded to their room and went to work. Judge J. C. Roberts, assistant city auditor, is with the grand jury, and a full force of bailiffs has been placed at their disposal.

MEN NOT CHURCHGOERS.

Waco Minister Attributes It to Thrift for Money.

Waco, Texas, April 24.—Rev. John R. Nelson, pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist church, preached a rather sensational sermon yesterday, entitled "A Message to the Men." Mr. Nelson made the startling announcement that about 70 per cent of the church-going people are women and girls, and that only 30 per cent of the congregations are made up of men and boys.

In a circular letter issued a few weeks ago the Young Men's Christian Association made the statement that about two-thirds of the church-going people were women and girls, but that statement was attributed to the entire State. Upon investigation Mr. Nelson has been convinced that the same conditions exist locally, and that in Waco the showing is perhaps a little worse.

He attributed the cause to skepticism, craze for money getting, and the saloons and places where vice is encouraged, but by far the greater influence is ascribed to the strife for the "silver dollar."

The minister said the men were seemingly afflicted with an acute type of mammonism—a kind of mammonish insanity, which has had the effect of paralyzing religious sentiment to a great extent. This condition, he says, is conducive to the growth of skepticism and leads to, first, indifference, then to immorality and a resort to dens of vice. He appealed to the men to change their course, that they are leading the boys to ruin, and for their sakes they should reform.

Gonzales Odd Fellows to Celebrate.

Gonzales, Texas, April 24.—Gonzales lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., will celebrate the anniversary of the order (the 26th) instantly by a public parade and basket dinner near town and a ball and supper at night. The lodge at Rancho, Smiley and Gonzales have been invited to participate in the celebration. The Gonzales lodge has been invited and will be in the parade and attend the dinner also. The Gonzales brass band will furnish music for the occasion. T. H. Spooner, a lifetime member of the order, will deliver the anniversary address. A large crowd is expected, and the different committees are at work to make a success of the occasion.

Beeville School Commencement.

Beeville, Texas, April 24.—The Baptist church in this city was crowded to its utmost capacity yesterday at 11 a. m. by the pupils, patrons and friends of the Beeville high school, to hear the commencement sermon preached by Rev. S. M. Luckett, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The sermon was a very able one, full of sound logic and good advice to the graduating class, and was highly enjoyed by the large congregation. The singing by a special choir was exceptionally good.

The commencement exercises will be completed at the high school building this evening at 8 o'clock.
